

Working Student (f/m/x) at Corporate Audit Department - Focus: Process Mining

Oberkochen

Thrive on innovation at a global technology leader. Develop exciting solutions in a diverse, stable work environment that's focused on the future. Join us in a modern work environment with an open and inspiring culture and colleagues!

Your job

- learn how to use the process mining tool Celonis at ZEISS
- support in developing and establishing a systematic stakeholder management
- create user guides and presentations for specific reporting requirements
- support the audit team in 1st level support, address technical issues to 2nd level support
- obtain requirements and implement analysis in the Celonis process mining tool

Our requirements

- you are studying business administration with focus on Information Management or Information Technology
- basic know how about the SAP sales process, SAP sales data model and respective SAP tables
- basic know how in SQL
- interest in Process Mining and digital process analysis as well as first project management skills and educational skills to train and mentor colleagues
- the ability to work in an independent, proactive, goal- and output-oriented manner
- good communication skills in English and German

At ZEISS we encourage creative thinking and innovation. We work in dynamic and interdisciplinary teams and offer individual development perspectives as well as flexibility in organizing your work. We care about our employees and take particular responsibility for improving society and preserving our environment. These core values have shaped our corporate culture at ZEISS for over 170 years.

Help us shape the future!

The application process takes less than 10 minutes, we look forward to receiving your application.

Your contact

Anne-Kathrin Stier
Carl Zeiss AG
☎ +49 7364 206609

