Job Title: Student / Intern Corporate Social Responsibility / ESG (m/f/d)

Location: Göppingen, Germany

Title of Direct Manager: CCO & Director Corporate Development

Short Description:
Join our team as intern or working student for Corporate Development team

Responsibilities:
- Support the corporate governance organization in improving its Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) strategy
- Develop own thoughts for fields of CSR activities and support the team in its execution
- Contribute to development of environmental, social and governance policies at TeamViewer
- Take part in cross-functional collaboration for gathering data and analyzing it accordingly
- Supporting in preparation for external and internal reporting

Requirements:
- You are currently studying in the field of business administration (4th semester bachelor minimum, masters as a plus) or related subjects
- Previous experience as an intern or working student in relevant field
- Strong interest in topics like CSR and ESG followed by practical and / or theoretical experience with these topics
- You have strong IT skills, in particular Microsoft Office (Work, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook)
- Data driven mindset and proven experience with data gathering and analysis
- You have excellent communication & presentation skills in English (fluency in German or other languages is a plus)

What we offer:
- Turn your knowledge into experience while working in one of the most modern and fast growing companies in tech industry!
- Make yourself at home! We don’t wear ties. In our relaxed office atmosphere, you can wear whatever you want and relax in on of our many lounge areas
- Of course, we offer you perks like free fruit, drinks and a variety of health and well-being activities.
- It’s all about the team: become part of a community that values respect, support and open feedback.
- We truly live and celebrate our cultural diversity: our colleagues come from from more than 60 countries and speak more than 40 languages.
- We work hard, and play harder! Look forward to company celebrations, team events and other social gathering