

(Senior) Manager Operational Excellence - Corporate Strategy (m/f/x)

Oberkochen

Step out of your comfort zone, excel and redefine the limits of what is possible. That's just what our employees are doing every single day – in order to set the pace through our innovations and enable outstanding achievements. After all, behind every successful company are many great fascinating people.

We are looking for people who are keen to try something new.

Would you like to drive the strategic development and operational excellence at ZEISS as part of the strategic group development?

Your role:

In close collaboration with the management and business units, you will work on operational excellence projects at ZEISS. As project manager you will be responsible for managing and supporting our core business and operational excellence activities, driving our position as a global market shaper. With your natural passion for driving improvements, you will take on the technical leadership for specific projects with a focus on improvements in the global ZEISS supply chain across all business units. You will be responsible for planning, monitoring, structuring and executing these projects as well as managing all related stakeholders.

Your profile:

- An above-average degree in natural sciences, engineering or economics
- 2+ years of professional experience in a consulting environment or within the operations or supply chain department of a leading global company
- High process understanding along the entire value chain and project management experience
- Skills to drive business and operational excellence activities and execute lighthouse projects
- Initial experience in lateral leadership of teams
- Enjoy working in an agile way in a networked, diverse and interdisciplinary environment
- Profound analytical competence, strategic and outside-the-box thinking
- Ability to present complex issues in a compressed manner
- Passion for innovation and enthusiasm for new technologies
- Fluent English skills, German is a plus

In a spacious modern setting full of opportunities for further development, ZEISS employees work in a place where expert knowledge and team spirit reign supreme. All of this is supported by a special ownership structure and the long-term goal of the Carl Zeiss Foundation: to bring science and society into the future together.

Join us today. Inspire people tomorrow.

Diversity is a part of ZEISS. We look forward to receiving your application regardless of gender, nationality, ethnic and social origin, religion, philosophy of life, disability, age, sexual orientation or identity.

Apply now! It takes less than 10 minutes.
