

Senior Manager Strategic Projects - Corporate Strategy (m/f/x)

Oberkochen

Step out of your comfort zone, excel and redefine the limits of what is possible. That's just what our employees do every single day – setting the pace through our innovations and enabling outstanding achievements. After all, behind every successful company are many great and fascinating people.

Would you like to drive strategy at ZEISS?

In close cooperation with the management, business units and corporate functions, you will lead strategic projects at ZEISS. You will act as initiator for project roadmaps along the ZEISS strategy. Together with the research & development departments and the business units, you will evaluate new fields of technology, analyze ZEISS core competencies, and identify market potentials and trends. You will lead key strategic projects, and implement core initiatives to grow, internationalize, and digitize our business, to make ZEISS a global market shaper. Your responsibilities will include planning, controlling, structuring and budgeting of the projects as well as top leadership communication and management of stakeholders.

Your profile:

- A degree with excellent grades in natural sciences, engineering or economics. A PhD or MBA are a plus.
- At least 4 years of professional experience at one of the leading management consultancies, or in corporate strategy.
- Profound experience in market and competition analysis, technology and innovation management.
- Proven success in lateral leadership of large teams and responsibility for complex projects.
- Outstanding analytical competence, strategic and outside-the-box thinking.
- Enjoy working in an agile way in networked, diverse, and interdisciplinary teams, and strong communication skills.
- Passion for innovation and enthusiasm for new technologies.
- Fluent English skills, German is a plus.

In a spacious modern setting full of opportunities for further development, ZEISS employees work in a place where expert knowledge and team spirit reign supreme. All of this is supported by a special ownership structure and the long-term goal of the Carl Zeiss Foundation: to bring science and society into the future together.

Join us today. Inspire people tomorrow.

Diversity is a part of ZEISS. We look forward to receiving your application regardless of gender, nationality, ethnic and social origin, religion, philosophy of life, disability, age, sexual orientation or identity.
