

HR Internship

- Hoofddorp, Netherlands
- Intern

Company Description

Delta, founded in 1971, Headquartered in Taiwan is a USD 9 Billion Global company leading in Power and Thermal management solutions. Its business verticals include Power Electronics, Automation, and Infrastructure. Delta has sales presence in all 6 continents and manufacturing plants in Asia, Europe and Americas. To maintain product leadership, the company invests 6-7% of its annual revenue in R&D. Delta Group established its EMEA operation in 1995, setting up its regional headquarters in Hoofddorp, near Amsterdam. In EMEA Delta has grown both organically and further supported by the acquisition of Ascom in 2003 and Eltek in 2015. Delta EMEA offers a wide portfolio of products and solutions in EV Charging, Solar Inverters, Telecom Powers, Data Centers, Industrial Automation and Display

Job Description

We are looking for a motivated HR intern to join our HR EMEA team in our Hoofddorp office. In this internship, you will gain great experience on how HR works within a multinational enterprise. Below are some of the major tasks you will be working on during your internship:

1. Participate and handle recruitment activity.
2. Support training activity.
3. Organize activities for employees.
4. Provide administrative support within the HR team.

Qualifications

1. You are studying a Bachelor's or Master's in Human Resources Management or any other relevant field.
2. You have good problem solving and communication skills.
3. You are fluent in English. Additional European languages are a plus.
4. You can effectively learn and acquire new knowledge and skills.
5. You can work well both in teams and independently.
6. You are proficient in Excel and PowerPoint.
7. You are available a minimum of 4 days a week and you are enrolled in a university/school for the whole duration of the internship.