

Working Student or Internship as Strategic Leadership Support (f/m/x)

Oberkochen

Step out of your comfort zone, excel and redefine the limits of what is possible. That's just what our employees are doing every single day – in order to set the pace through our innovations and enable outstanding achievements. After all, behind every successful company are many great fascinating people.

Your role

We are seeking a passionate and talented student who wants to help shape a department that works on developing next-generation product for ZEISS. Integrated in a team of scientists and research engineers, you will work directly with the head of the department to establish and maintain leadership and management methods. Your tasks will involve researching and evaluating leadership methods, developing and managing processes for the department, preparing presentations and documents, and planning events such as workshops.

What We Offer

- An opportunity to help shape the methods, processes, and presentations for a department consisting of experienced PhD-level experts
- Mentorship by the head of the department
- An environment where you can bring in your own ideas and have the freedom to learn and experiment
- The possibility of continued employment as a working student for up to 2 years
- A modern work environment with a mix of remote and on-site days

Your profile

- You're enrolled in a Bachelor's or Master's degree in a field such as psychology, economics, management or similar
- You are interested in shaping the way of working for a research department
- You are able to understand, summarize and present scientific publications from different fields such as organizational psychology or economics
- You have a talent for structuring and presenting complex information
- You have a keen eye for creating appealing presentations and documents
- Ideally, you want to continue as a Working Student for at least a year
- You can work with us onsite in Oberkochen for a couple of days per week
- Good communication skills in English and German
- You are willing to learn and explore with a high degree of initiative and creativity

In a spacious modern setting full of opportunities for further development, ZEISS employees work in a place where expert knowledge and team spirit reign supreme. All of this is supported by a special ownership structure and the long-term goal of the Carl Zeiss Foundation: to bring science and society into the future together.

Join us today. Inspire people tomorrow.

Diversity is a part of ZEISS. We look forward to receiving your application regardless of gender, nationality, ethnic and social origin, religion, philosophy of life, disability, age, sexual orientation or identity.
