Betreff: Tec de Monterrey. Application period open for Summer 2022 and Fall Semester August-December 2022

Dear partner,

Tec de Monterrey is looking forward to hosting your students for the next academic periods this year (iSummer, Tec Summer School, and Fall semester August-December 2022).

Please find in this folder the relevant information for incoming exchange students with regards to the application process, our latest fact sheet for the 2022-2023 programs, information about the New Tec21 model, and the brochures for Research Projects and Internships.

Below please find a summary with the most important dates and descriptions of the programs.

iSummerMX, is a program designed for International Students who love traveling and learning about new cultures. iSummer programs are offered in three different areas. For more information about each program click on the image:

These programs are subject to availability depending on demand. If the minimum number of registered students is not completed, it will not be offered. So, it is important that if you have interested students, let us know as soon as possible. If you have questions about the iSummer programs or want to know more about it, we can gladly schedule a zoom meeting to provide more information. If that is the case, you can respond to this email.*
