

Check list

Master Applied Photonics

What documents do I need to submit to Aalen University until the application deadline?

Important

Application deadline winter semester: 15 July

Application deadline summer semester: 15 January

The following documents must be submitted:

- Application for admission to the study
- the university entrance certificate (Abitur, advanced technical college qualification.)
- the certificate of a vocational degree in Physics, Optics, Optoelectronics, Electronics or a related field with 210 ECTS points or higher or at least 180 ECTS points (in which case the lacking 30 ECTS points shall be acquired during the Master study)
- a certificate of the temporary final grade (in case you have not received your definitive school-leaving certificate yet)
- Evidence of any professional training, occupation or other practical work
- Evidence of a passes language test in German (this examination is not required for German native speakers or candidates who have finished an German-language study) A2
- Evidence of a passes language test in English (this examination is not required for English native speakers or candidates who have finished an English-language study) B2 TOEFL or TOEIC

Please, note:

If you completed your first degree abroad we need the conversion from Studienkolleg Konstanz (for international applicants) till application deadline.