Notes:

1. The recipient undertakes to use the loaned device exclusively for scientific purposes and not to pass it on to third parties. The recipient shall take appropriate measures to prevent unauthorized persons from copying the programs. This applies in particular to local networks (LAN), where access rights must be regulated accordingly.
 2. The recipient is granted a non-exclusive, non-transferable right to use the programs. He is granted permission to use programs for teaching and research purposes at the issuing institute. Permission for commercial, industrial or industrial use is not granted and is prohibited.
 3. Login name and password are to be treated confidentially and are not transferable. If they are passed on, access will be blocked immediately. The programs made available on the Faculty's computers may only be used in accordance with the license agreements; they may not be copied, listed, modified or made accessible to other persons.
 4. The loan period is limited to the duration of the course or project. However, if the recipient breaches the agreement, the issuing institute may immediately revoke the transfer without prior notice and thus terminate it. In this case, the service may no longer be used by the recipient. The same applies automatically if the course or project has ended.
 5. No liability is assumed for damages resulting from this transfer. The recipient is liable for all damages resulting from non-compliance with this agreement. In the event of gross violations of this obligation, as well as in the event of loss of admission to studies, the user name will be deleted. The borrowed device must be returned in the same condition in which it was borrowed and the recipient is liable for any damage caused to the borrowed device.
